Description: An independent contract research company that serves the needs of pharmaceutical, chemical, agrochemical and biotech companies, operating state-of-the art lab facilities and supporting the diverse needs of its customers in efficient drug discovery, medicinal chemistry and classical synthetic chemistry. Taros' scientists combine more than 140 years industrial organic chemistry experience and over 60 years of active drug discovery experience from big pharmas and biotechs. They have expertise across a broad range of therapeutic areas (oncology, respiratory, CNS, cardiovascular, inflammation, pain, metabolism and infectious) and in all small molecule target classes. They have developed TarosGate, a unique software suite putting cost, time and chemistry information at a Project Leader's finger tips.
