Description: It is at the forefront of new ideas and developments in microscopy and imaging. The RMS is the only truly international microscopical society, drawing distinguished members from all over the world. It also serves the needs of its company members who represent all the major manufacturers and suppliers of microscopes, equipment and services. In addition to this, the Society is pursuing an initiative to encourage young microscope users who may go on to influence microscopy in years to come. The Society is dedicated to advancing science, developing careers and supporting wider understanding of science and microscopy through its Science and Society activities. In support of the above, it publishes The Journal of Microscopy and microscopy handbooks, as well as helping young scientists through bursaries. The Society is incorporated by Royal Charter. Its governing documents are its Charter and By-laws. The most recent AGM minutes, Trustees Report and Accounts are available below - 2007 AGM draft minutes Full 2007 Trustees Report and Accounts - as submitted to the Charity Commission The RMS is a member of: - the Foundation for Science and Technology - the Biosciences Federation - the International Federation of Societies for Microscopy - the European Microscopy Society training opportunities; jobs.
