Description: THIS RESOURCE IS NO LONGER IN SERVICE. Documented on October 27,2023. Core provides intellectual guidance for quantitative aspects of the design and analysis of center studies and expertise in biostatistical methods, environmental risk assessment, Geographic Information System (GIS) , spatial statistics, molecular biology, bioinformatics and statistical genetics. Core runs a regular seminar series and often sponsors short courses on specialized topics of interest to the community.

Synonyms: Bioinformatics Core, HSPH, Environmental Statistics, Harvard School of Public Health
