Proper Citation: MIRRI (RRID:SCR_016461)

Description: Microbial stock center. Collaborative platform for the pan-European research infrastructure for microbial resources. Provides access to microorganisms, their derivatives, associated data and services for research, development and application.

Abbreviations: MIRRI

Synonyms: Microbal Resource Research Infrastructure

Resource Type: database, organization portal, data or information resource, service resource, topical portal, european biobank, web service, portal, storage service resource, biobank, material storage repository, organism-related portal, software resource, data access protocol

Keywords: European, research, infrastructure, microbial, resource, database, service, stock, center

Funding: the European Commission 312251;
the European Union's Seventh Framework Programme 312251

Availability: Free, Freely available

Resource Name: MIRRI

Resource ID: SCR_016461

Record Creation Time: 20220129T080330+0000

Record Last Update: 20260810T040658+0000
