Description: An association representing and serving nephrology practitioners in the United States whose members are committed to improving the care of patients with chronic kidney disease (CKD) and related disorders. RPA educates policymakers about issues that affect both patients and nephrology practices. They also work with the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS) on regulatory policies. (Adapted from Wikipedia) Programs focus in the areas of practice management, public policy and quality patient care. They provide timely and relevant programs along with current nephrology tools and resources to make certain members maintain their highest level of professional satisfaction.
