Proper Citation: RepOD (RRID:SCR_014697)

Description: An online platform for open source data/datasets created, collected or annotated for scientific research of all fields and disciplines. Registered users can share data relating to their research project and view data from other projects. Groups can combine datasets into collections associated with the group, in contrast to individual members of the group hosting their own data.

Synonyms: Repository for Open Data, Repository for Open Data (RepOD)

Resource Type: database, data or information resource

Keywords: repository, open source, open data, research data, platform

Availability: Open source, Available to the research community, Registration required

Resource Name: RepOD

Resource ID: SCR_014697

Alternate IDs: r3d100011903

License URLs: <https://repod.pon.edu.pl/terms>

Record Creation Time: 20220129T080321+0000

Record Last Update: 20260808T190432+0000
