Proper Citation: NeuroCurator (RRID:SCR_016365)

Description: Software application to perform systematic and collaborative curation of neuroscientific literature. Graphical User Interface (GUI) for the Python package NeuroAnnotation Toolbox (NAT). Used for the systematic annotation of relevant statements and model parameters to be traceable, reusable across projects, structured with controlled vocabularies.

Resource Type: software application, software resource

Defining Citation: PMID:28469570

Keywords: systematic, collaborative, curation, annotation, neuroscientific, literature, graphical, user, interface, Python

Funding: OpenMinted Grant 654021;
the EPFL Blue Brain Project Fund ;
