Proper Citation: Tennessee Tech University Research Computing and Data Core Facility
(RRID:SCR_027555)

Description: Core empowers students, faculty, and staff across all disciplines by providing the tools, training, and equipment for advanced computing for more robust, reproducible research with reduced time to results. Manages the campus cluster, and also facilitate access to larger federally-funded clusters at zero cost. Provided data transfer and network performance monitoring services enable researchers and collaborators to move data quickly.
